FOREWORD

IN those sacred moments when age turns back the faded pages of life and lingers tenderly over the memories of precious hours spent in the pursuit of knowledge, of the dear old school and dear school mates, may this book ever be a comfort and a joy.

DEDICATION

TO a man true to himself, a straight-forward man, a man who knows what he wants to do and does it, who is an example and encouragement to every student who enters the halls of Breckenridge High School, who influences all with whom he comes in contact. To such a man as L. T. Cook, do we the class of 1925, dedicate this, the third volume of the BUCKAROO.

MR. W. D. SPENCER

Building and Ground Superintendent

Mr. Spencer has patiently taught us a lesson which will influence the future of every student of this school the lesson of public pride. He has been the main factor in preserving the beauty of our buildings and grounds. To him do we extend our thanks and appreciation

Faculty

L. T. COOK
Superintendent

Mr. L. T. Cook came to Breckenridge four years ago from Strawn. With untiring efforts and tireless labor, he has established a high school that is unsurpassed in the state for equipment and curriculum. Every step in school progress has found Mr. Cook adding to the departments, until to-day the Breckenridge High School is an example to all the surrounding territory.

JOHN F. BAILEY
Principal

During the four years he has been in Breckenridge Mr. Bailey, both as a teacher and as the principal of High School, has endeared himself to the student body. He has been just and kind in dealing with the student

Patient with our faults, he keeps us upon the right path to success. We hope that many other classes may be so fortunate as to have him as their guide and mentor.

CLASSIS

The Indian ... the best in the world

C L A S S E S

Senior

IT sometimes happens that a class is fortunate in gaining as a friend and sponsor one who is willing to sacrifice her all for that one group; who follows the progress of that organization with tender eyes and helping hands: who has the interest of each individual close to her heart.

TO MISS MILDRED DAVIS we, the Senior Class of 1925, lovingly dedicate this section of the BUCKAROO.

MISS MILDRED DAVIS

Resume of Senior Class

The Freshmen of '21 entered the portals of Breck-Hi last fall as Seniors, resolving to carry on the spirit of the past three years and benefit the school in some way by their presence.

Arch Kinchen was elected president; Johnie Dye, vice-president; Irlan McArron, secretary and treasurer, and Gertrude Ewing, class representative. Miss Davis was selected as sponsor for the third successive year.

A school is judged by its publications. That is one of the principal reasons why the fame of Breckenridge has reached every part of the state and arrested the attention of many other states. This is the third consecutive year that Breckenridge High has had an annual published by the senior class respectfully. It was entered in the National contest two years ago and won third place. Last year it was entered in the state contest and won first place. It is expected that the class of '25 will put out a Buckaroo that will win many laurels. It has an excellent staff headed by Bessie Zinn, editor, and Jimmie Payne, business manager.

"The Dynamo" with Dick Smith as editor-in-chief has been a great factor in giving local news to the students in an interesting form and has done much to create pep and enthusiasm among the classes. This paper is expected to win state honors this year.

It has been a brilliant year for basketball, and again the Seniors made up the majority of the team. Captain Fitzgerald, Vail, Cook, and Foster are those who helped take the team to district.

This outlook in track is very bright this year and with Vail as Senior representative, Breckenridge is expected to win state honors.

The girls have not fallen behind in the events. Captain Dunham, Spencer, Snaer, Fitzgerald, and Downing are the Seniors who went to back Breck-Hi. in the state basketball meet.

One never thinks of an athletic event without recalling to mind yells and popcorn. The pep squad found the Senior, Raymond McGuire, leading them and this leader found the huskiest throats among his own class mates. At one corner of the athletic field was erected a stand at which were sold drinks and "blasted peanuts." The Senior class had sole concessions to the stand. The money derived from this source went to win a contest later in the season.

The Buckaroo Beauty contest is one of those things that happen once in a year. It harasses some, benefits others, and on the whole rouses spirit that otherwise would be lost. For a few weeks four certain young ladies ransacked the drugstores and four classes paid triple class dues. Plays were given, magazines were slaughtered for their humor sections and kitchens were robbed of sugar. But to no avail. On the second night of "Mary's Millions" Miss Ruth Stout, Senior, was crowned Buckaroo Beauty.

Resume of Senior Class

The Senior play, "Mary's Millions" was a decided success and netted a neat sum for the beauty contest. Eleven talented members of the class took part in the play. Another play was given during the Commencement Week by the class.

The Seniors were the first to entertain in chapel. The "Dumb" program consisting of: a piano duet, orchestra numbers, vocal solo, readings, and a political address. The numbers were repeatedly encored.

Many interscholastic honors have been won by Seniors. To-wit: tennis, Spencer and Dye; extemporaneous speaking, Vail; debate, Payne; and track, Vail.

The Seniors have not been lacking in social life. Three picnics and kodaking expeditions have been given by the Seniors during the year. "Hank" Nanney entertained the Senior and Juniors at the Elk's Hall. Mr. O. C. Goodwin entertained the class with a party at his home. Probably one of the most delightful affairs of the year was the theatre party given by the class.

The leading factor of the success of the class is Miss Davis, who has given her all to aid the progress of her class during the past three years.

We the Seniors believe in class spirit—not the bragging or unfriendly kind but in the spirit of competition, loyalty to class, and devotion to our high school.

Junior Class Events

The Junior Class of Old Breck-Hi. started off the year 1924-25 with bright prospects ahead. There were over a hundred of these noble students in the Junior Class which met for the first time in the auditorium at the beginning of the school term. The election of officers was held at once. James Zarafonitis was elected president. Fern Campbell was elected vice-president and Florine Martin was elected to fill the office of secretary and treasurer. Miss Estelle Cope was immediately selected for sponsor and a delegate made a wild run to the office to "grab her." Port Hove was elected as class representative to the Board.

Right off the reel the boys and girls of the Junior Class started out to gain a good reputation for it by going out for football and basketball. The Junior Class has good athletics.

The Track time arrived. Many Juniors who had gone out for football now turned their attention to track. Jim Stewart, that lanky track star who won third place in the state last year for high jump, is a member of the Junior Class and is expecting great things at state this year. In the Inter-Class Track Meet the Juniors won first place, and the loving-cup.

At the start of the Beauty Contest the Juniors started in to nobly support their beauty, Miss Fern Campbell, but it was finally seen that in order to give the Seniors a real banquet the money would have to be saved and the Juniors gave up the race in time to win third place.

The Juniors are well represented in all of the activities of the school. They are in the Glee Club, the Press Club, the Spanish Club, and the president and vice-president of the Latin Club are high-powered Juniors.

The president of the Juniors resigned and Fern Campbell was elected president while Duke Kinchen was elected to fill her place as vice-president. So far the Juniors have given two one-act plays—"The Florist Shop" and "The Roman ceers." These plays were presented in professional style.

The Juniors are resolved to present a "really great" banquet. Part of the money for this will be raised by the Simmons Glee Club which the Junior Class is presenting in the auditorium on March 31. Then the Class will present one more play—a musical comedy entitled "Roset-me" on April 17. It is to be sponsored and put on by the same company that put on the comedy "The Microbe of Love." It will be Junior talent.

Let us look far into the future. The times have changed. The Juniors are prepared in every way to take care of themselves and when the names of men go down into the immortal books of fame there will undoubtedly be some Juniors on those leaves. And when a Junior has won fame he will put the credit where it rightfully belongs—to the able sponsorship of Miss Estelle Cope.

Sophomore Activities

The Sophomore class of 1924-25 met in high spirits despite the fact that we regretted deeply the loss of our dear Miss Ruth L. Jones. We secured, however, two worthy successors in Miss Lila McNeil and Mrs. Jesse R. Smith, who have been largely responsible for our very successful year. We showed our appreciation by electing Harlan Harrison our class president last year, as President. We chose Kathleen Haynes as Vice-President, who has "proved her weight in gold." Annorah Robinson, who is indeed worthy of the honor, was selected as class representative. Emma Ruth Jones, last year's officer, was then elected to "guard the hard-earned treasures."

When football season arrived our heroes became valued men on the football field. Also members of the class showed up in strong numbers in the band and pep squad. We're some noisy crowd!

After a period of calm the beauty contest was held. With our hopes high (as well they might have been the winning class last year) we chose Miss Pauline Proper as the Most Beautiful. I shall pass over the sad outcome of this hotly contested election. We surely run 'em a close race. Anyway, we came fourth.

The school looked forward with eagerness and expectation to our chapel entertainment. This is certainly as it should be, as we are full of talent and skill to be exhibited in this class. (Great things are expected of us in the years to come.) Humorous remarks were given by the accomplished Misses Florence Karlitz and Sophie Fiveman. These were greatly enjoyed and appreciated by the audience. Earl Backman delighted the audience with a violin solo. The Sophomore Glee Club then gave several selections which were well received. The last number was a Scottish Rye which was very pleasing and effective. A charming solo of a Sophomore, Miss Cornelia Thon, the King, and the Misses Ruth Jones and Lucile Dunham, dressed in native costumes, danced a Highland Fling.

One of the most novel and unique affairs of the year was the Sophomore Kodak Hour. Mr. Backman, class sponsor, was the host. We took pictures of the boys. After the Kodak hour, the first of the party, the partners of the city were, lunch was announced. And, oh, what a treat there was!

The school is looking to our class to "bring home" the larger number of points toward the school championship in athletic events of 1925. The winning basketball team is composed mostly of Sophomores. And by the way, the student players come from the pointiness of our class. Just a little more, Y. All agree we're "it" when it comes to track-meet.

So far there is a larger per cent of Sophomores belonging to the Spanish Club and Order of the F. L. H. than of any other class.

No wonder that we're so successful, as it is in our very name, Sophomore.

S stands for service, always great and true.

O stands for originality in everything we do.

P is for perseverance—we always stand the test.

H is for harmony—we'll ever do our best.

O stands for our organization, so very great and strong

M is for our manners, good, which we always "bring along."

O stands for over—we "put it over" every class in school.

R stands for right—we observe the Golden Rule.

E is for enthusiasm, and may it never fall.

All this spells Sophomore, the best old class of all!

JAKE SCHULMAN
Football Captain

To the sovereign of football in Breck Hi. we dedicate this section of the Buckaroo. We can not think of a more competent man to be called the captain of the Buckaroos, nor do we know a more fitting person to dedicate the most popular department of the book to Jakes' ability was far above the average, and his influence in keeping the morale of the team went further to prove his importance to the Buckaroo team. Jake has spent his last year with the Buckaroos.

JAKE SCHULMAN

Captain and Quarter-back Two Years

Jake was almost unanimously elected to be Captain of the Buckaroos for this year, and we see now that we made an excellent selection. He has exhibited a high type of field generalship as Captain and quarter-back. The only thing we hold against Jake is that he leaves us this year.

COACH COAN

This is one man of whom the whole school is justly proud, for he is responsible for the remarkable progress and records of the Buckaroos during the past season. Mr. Coan was famous for his severe methods which bring out everything that is in a candidate. With Mr. Coan as mentor of the Buckaroos next year we can't see how they can be stopped.

JOHN VAIL

Manager. One Year

Now this lanky boy, though not a football player, was a very important part of the club. He served as the manager for the past season, and as yet we have heard no complaints on the way he did it.

Football Champions

JIM STEWART
End. One Year

Here we find six feet of real football material, and one of the best pass-snaring machines seen here in years. Jim could jump over a six foot bar in a track meet, and much higher after a pass in his territory. He was good for a five yard gain after he was tackled. One more year for the big fellow.

BENNIE SARRETT
Center. One Year

Bennie is a new member of the Buckaroo fold, and in all probability the most important factor. He has an uncanny ability to diagnose a play of the opponents in its origin, and likewise, to break it up almost before it starts.

Football Champions

Continued

CARNEY LAGRONE

Guard. Two Years

Well, here's dear ol' "Fat," good humored, cheerful, and good football player all combined. Carney was large enough to tear a whole side of the line out when he was so inclined. He is another of the next year's men.

JACK HINDI

Guard. One Year

Jack gained his initiation to football in the season of '24. He is a native product of Breckenridge, and a potential addition to the strong line of the Buckaroos. The cheerful part of the situation is the fact that Jack still has a year to play.

RANDAL SMITH

Quarter-back. Three Years

Another of the veterans in Breckenridge football circles is "Smittie." In the three seasons that this lad has played, he has played every position on the team. This year, his last one in high school, Mr. Coan found him best suited for a quarter-back.

Football Champions

Continued.

JAMES ZARAFONETIS

Half-back. One Year

This, you are to understand, is the famous Greek "footballer" from Ranger. And he has lived up to his reputation in every sense. The plunging half is one that could tear through any line that he faced throughout the entire season. Jim's through in Black Hills.

ARCH KINCEN

Center-Guard. Four Years

Behold the only four-year man on the Buckaroo team! Four years of the highest type of performance in the center of the line! Some have called Archie the "old reliable"

HENRY NANNY

Half back. Four Years

And here's Hank, one of the three men of the four year aggregation. Hank was just about the hardest fighter on the team, and we are sorry to lose him this year.

Football Champions

Continued

GRADY JENNINGS

Half End. One Year

This undersized griddle is some times called "Doc." Well, he's a bad dose for any opposing end, if that has any bearing on the name. "Doc" was constructed so conveniently close to the ground that he could squeeze through any hole in the line. He leaves us flat this year

GEORGE ZARAFONETIS

Full and Half-back. One Year

George, otherwise "Dopey" is Ranger's reluctant donation to the team from Ol' Breck-Hi. The brand of football that George inaugurated this year is of the type which will long be remembered with a shudder by those who opposed him, and with praise by the Buckaroo Fans

WYNDELL COX

Half-back. Two Years

This introduces the pilot of the Buckaroos for the season of '25, none other than "Ophelia," himself. Triple-threat man of Breck-Hi for the past two seasons, and we think, one of the most dependable men on the whole string, as perhaps the majority of the team did in electing him as their captain for the coming season

Football Champions

LOWELL COOK

End Two Years

"Cookie" is with many others finishing his second and last year for Breckenridge Hi. Cook's playing was not so brilliant, but it was steady, which probably is the reason he won the watch offered for the best all round man on the team.

HENRY JOHNSON

Tackle. Two Years

This big tackle is one of the productions of the "Old Home Town." Some of the by products are some of the line men who have faced him this and the past season. Some college is in for a good man next year.

HARBIN HARRISON

Tackle. Three Years

Picked as an all-state tackle, given the watch for being the best fighter on the field, had three years experience as a "footballer," sixteen years old that is "Ham" Harrison. He could tear the whole side out of a line with one lunge. All this considered, Harbin has two more years with the Buckaroos.

To start with, the Buckaroos had a better start this year than ever before: a new coach, a half-score of new players, and better equipment. Furthermore, the Lutes Club offered a prize to the best letter man, the best non-letter man, and the best fighter on the team. One of the watches went to the best all-round man on the team; one went to the best all-around non-letter man; the last watch went to the best fighter on the team, regardless of the scholastic standing. The position of the best non-letter man was a tie between two men, so Mr. Cook duplicated the reward.

The students and the citizens of the town gave the team the support they deserved. More interest was exhibited this year than ever before. In fact the interest was so great that the school had to sell five thousand tickets. At the great Cisco game standing-room was at a premium. The fame of the Buckaroos was sung in the greatest newspapers of the state; blaring headlines at the top of the sports and of the news pages of the Buckaroos were the day sports of the state. The Buckaroos had won the State Championship. Well, we did tie the team that played off in the champion game, and that's some accomplishment at that.

One of the men had the distinction of winning a place on the all-state second team. This man was none other than "Ham" Harrison and this is the first time that a Breckenridge football player has ever been placed on the famous team.

ELK'S ALL STARS VS THE BUCKAROOS

"That Good Old High School Line" went against the Elks for the second time on Sept. 26. We came out with a new strategy, the "Double-0" victory to our name. The feature of the game was when "Big Boy" George scooped up a blocked punt and galloped down the field for the touchdown of the day.

EASTLAND VS BRECKENRIDGE

At least a class A game! A glorious success it was, too! That is to say, the Buckaroos slipped away with the big lead of 10-0. This was a big consolation for the team that lost to the Elks, as they had a great punt up to go, well he did kick a field goal from the 45 yard line!

RANGER VS BRECKENRIDGE

The Buckaroos hung up another "Double-0" score when they clashed with the Ranger team on the enemy territory. The game was a "fight from start to finish," particularly at the finish! The white uniforms of the Breck Hi Band seemed to arouse the fire of the Bull-Dog Fans so much that one musician felt the need of breaking his clarinet on the head of one of the Rangerites.

CISCO VS BRECKENRIDGE

The Big Dam Loboes of Cisco invaded our territory flushed with victory and a record of 10-0. They had a great test of the "Double-0" Buckaroos. The Buckaroos tried them. The Loboes were a great team. It was a great game. The Loboes played off Oak Cliff for State Championship.

COMANCHE VS BRECKENRIDGE

When the Buckaroos met the Comanche team, the Buckaroos played the game from the start to the finish. The Comanche team was a great team. The Buckaroos were a great team. The most exciting cut of all was when Comanche succeeded in putting over a touchdown with a field goal. So the Buckaroos lost the game by the score of 7-0.

ABILENE VS BRECKENRIDGE

Foiled again. This time by the Eagles. This is one more game in which the Buckaroos were defeated. It seems that Lady Luck had left us flat, for in the last period of the game Harrison fumbled the ball on the two yard line, and an Abilene player went ninety-eight yards for a touchdown. Soft music, orchestra; this is the sad scene. Score, 14-0.

STAMFORD VS BRECKENRIDGE

This is the second "Bull-Dog" team to face the Buckaroos this season, and the second "Bull-Dog" team to go home with a "howling defeat." We have at least seen the "Zevs" do it all.

GRAHAM VS BRECKENRIDGE

The Turkey Game was the sweetest closing of the season possible for Breckenridge. The game was easily won, although Graham put up a hard fight. But the heavier Buckaroos were just too many for them that's all.

DESDEMONA VS BRECKENRIDGE

The light again begins to shine for the Buckaroos. Hog Town suffered under the wrath of the Buckaroos. Merchant "strutted his stuff" to the extent of three of the six touchdowns.

CENTRAL HIGH VS BRECKENRIDGE

This post-season game with Ft. Worth Central High showed that the Buckaroos fought hard. There is a rumor that we play them again next year. If we do—well, that all!

The above picture represents what probably was the happiest moment in the whole year for the footballers; that morning in chapel when (at last) some of the members of the school board assembled on the stage with the boys and awarded the letter men their reward for the past season of football grind. As you see, the high school orchestra saw fit to furnish music for the occasion

WAYNE FITZGERALD
Captain

We can do no higher honor to any player than to dedicate this section to him. Therefore we dedicate this department to none other than Wayne Fitzgerald, Captain of the Buckaroo Cagers of the past season, and a member of the team for the past two years. Fizzie was high point man of the past year. No other man, who has ever been on the Buckaroo Club, has even approached this record. His brilliant career in Breck-Hi terminates with this season, and here's hoping that he extends his success to some higher degree in college.

HEFNER

Forward

This man, you are to understand, is none other than "Guy Wire" Hefner, another of the dependable two-year players. He was somewhat of a flash, off and on, throughout the season. There will be another year for this boy to "strut his stuff" on the Breck-Hi court.

COX

Guard

"Harry," like his team-mate, "Fitzy," put over his second year on the Breck-Hi cage team, and this second was by no means an unimportant one, either. He was a wild-cat at breaking up pretty plays in their origin. Cox will re-enforce the Buckaroo Club of '26.

VAIL

Center

This introduces to you the Mr. Jno Vail. This player was a very valuable asset to the Breck Hi cage club, and this was his first and last season with the Buckaroos.

COOK

Guard and Forward

No, there is nothing especially brilliant in "Cookies" basketball game. He is that necessary constant man that a team must have. A man who can be relied on at the critical time and all other times. His average for high point honor is second to "Fitzy."

FOSTER

Center

Behold, the original "Andy Gump!" There are few centers in this territory who can get the tip-off over Andy, and there are few basketekers in any position who can cover more of the court than this gigantic center.

HINSON

Guard

And this is Joe Bailey Hinson, the little boy who beat all of the rest of the scrubs to a position of the first string this season, and who has still two years to be a star.

FITZGERALD

Forward

"Fitzy" has, during his two years with the Buckaroos, been the main-spring of the Basketball team. He is the possessor of a terrible driving offense and a sure eye at goal-shooting at all distances, as well as nice defensive work. The trouble with "Fitzy" seems to be that he finishes this year.

COAN

Coach

Here, you see, we have Mr. Coan, the mentor of all the athletics of Breck-Hi, therefore the coach of the basketball team. He handled the affairs of the team well this year, in fact, he came near to winning the championship of the district for the year.

EMALINE DUNHAM
Basketball Captain

Here is a player who has attained the highest possible in basketball in the High School. Her success was so complete that she was selected as captain of the "Buckarettes." In the one year Emaline has been in school here she has won the admiration of the patrons of basketball and the envy of the co-players. We are sorry that Emaline had but one year to represent us in basketball

MATTABELL DOWNING

Forward and Guard

It makes no difference to Mattabell what position she plays, just so she is helping that old team to win. She is known to be dependable, cool headed and lovable.

LUCILLE DUNHAM

Center

Anyone who has seen Lucille play remembers her as a little whirlwind on the court. When Mona Lee knocks the ball, Lucille is always standing by ready to catch it—and she does.

EMALINE DUNHAM

Captain and Forward

For the good of the team, Emaline sacrifices her own chances to make goals and gets the ball to Helen. She is fast and reliable, always in a good humor, which makes her a favorite among the players and a splendid captain.

HELEN SPEER

Forward

Helen gets the ball. "Zip!" another goal and another score for Breck Hi. She is high point girl. "U Tell 'Em," we are shaking hands with ourselves over the fact that we will have her again next year.

ALENE FITZGERALD
Forward

Alene is another fighter for the green and white. We wonder why she didn't come out sooner. Her time has been short, but successful just the same.

IRENE SNYER
Center

Aren't we glad the State Department counted our graduate-student eligible? We needed Irene back in her old place as running center. Take our word that she is always there, and with the ball.

MARGARET COX
Forward

Margaret is just a real good player who doesn't bother the referee with fouls. One of Breck H's successful athletes. Here's luck to her in next year's games.

RUBY MANSFIELD
Guard

Why do all the opposing forwards dread Ruby? Because she is always there to baffle even the most expert goal thrower. She knows how. What she undertakes she finishes.

MONA LEE SPENCER

Jumping Center

Who can jump? Mona Lee Spencer! You're mighty right. She's big, quick and determined. If you don't want to lose, don't get up against her. She is a favorite with everyone but her opponents.

SYLVIA THURMAN

Guard

Sylvia is another of our fast guards. Count on her to keep the opposing team's scoring down. The wonderful team-work between Ruby and Sylvia has been a subject of comment in every game.

MISS WOLFFENBERGER

Coach

To Miss Wolfenberger the B. H. S. Senior girls basket-ball team owes much of its success for isn't it she who inspires us to win and who directs us in every play? Here is hoping Miss Wolfenberger will continue to lead us to victory in every game we play this year in Breckenridge High School.

JUNIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

The City of Breckenridge and Breckenridge High School are both proud of the Junior Girls Basketball team this year. It has not been defeated. The team played nine games, winning all, which made them County Champions

SENIOR TRACK BOYS

The progress of the Buckaroo track was little short of phenomenal. With most of the last year's men missing, Coach Coan pulled the boys through in great fashion. We are anxiously awaiting the outcome of the district meet

The distance end of the club was held down by John Vail, who has made some records on the mile run. The middle distance was taken care of by Fitzgerald. The quarters had more candidates than any other department of the sport; the leaders seemed to have been "Ham" Harrison, and Ed Solomon. Harrison and "Scatterbrains" Stanford did stellar performance in the springs

In the field events "Big Jim" Stewart was the obvious leader. He made the high jump, discus throw, shot put, and javelin throw. He also ran in the 440 and made good time. Jim Zarafonetis did the broad jumping and vaulting

The hurdles were handled by George Zarafonetis and Jim Stewart

JUNIOR TRACK BOYS

 Top Row: JOE GOLDBLATT
 Standing: COACH JOHNSON

This is one of the best years in the history of the Junior track in Breckenridge. Goldblatt won one third place in two events. Potter entered in five events and won first in potato race, third in 440 relay and high jump and second in 250 yard dash. Crowell won first in 100 dash. Willoughby won first in 100 dash. Ligon won first in 100 dash. Robinson took third place in 100 dash, third place in broad jump and third place in relay.

"Start 'em Young" is a good motto well used in Breck Hi. These boys with the help of the other teams won first place for Breck Hi in the county track meet.

SENIOR TRACK GIRLS

This winning team was made up of MONA LEE SPENCER, MATTABELL DOWNING, EMALINE DUNHAM, IRENE SNAER, RUBY MANSFIELD, AGATHA MOSS, SYLVIA THURMAN, HELEN SPEER, ALENE FITZGERALD, and TOMMIE JEWELL HEFNER.

Another year and another successful Senior Girls' track team. Under Miss Wendenberger's training the Senior Girls' helped out the team that Breck Hi has boasted for the last two years. It was largely through their efforts that Breckenridge won so many points during the county track meet.

JUNIOR TRACK GIRLS

HELEN BOYER, RUTH ALEXANDER, and THELMA RUSSELL

The Junior Girls failed to measure up to the past records in track. A large number reported for work and much interest was shown in the class meet. No first places were won in the final contest although the girls showed excellent material for a senior team.

TENNIS TEAMS

Johnnie Dye represented us in boy - singles, while Alva Harrel and George Beadle upheld our standard in doubles.

Ruby Mansfield, who got to state level, played our singles again. Irene Snaer, Mona Lee Spencer, and Lessie Mansfield divided the work and honors among themselves for doubles.

TRACK EVENTS

Breck Hi students have been very successful in winning rewards for their work. In the above picture may be seen a number of pennants which have been won by different classes. The largest cup was won by the Buckaroo annual of 1923-24, the second in size was won at the District Interscholastic meet of 1924. The smallest cup was won by the Junior class in the class meet of 1925. Another cup not in the picture was won by the Buckaretttes at the State meet. A number of pennants were won during the county and district meet that came in too late to be in the picture.

These trophies show that the Breckenridge High School has a good start in outside activities and in future years it expects to make a better record than even now.

ORGANIZATIONS

Introduction

THE organization activities may be rightly classed among the most important of the school; especially have they won this place the past year.

The members of the school board and the faculty have created much interest in these activities by allowing each student to have two outside credits toward graduation.

Students taking part in outside work are allowed credits as follows: All activities such as declamation, debate, club activities, and annual and paper staffs are allowed  $\frac{1}{4}$  credit, while the editor and business manager of the annual get 1 credit and editor and business manager of the paper get  $\frac{1}{2}$ .

Since this plan has been adopted much ability has been shown and much talent and material have been developed that has caused Breck. Hi. to win many trophies and medals.

The cup on the left was presented by the Art Craft's Guild to the "Buckaroo" staff of 1924, Charles Willetts, Editor; Irving Goldblatt, Business Manager, for the first place in the state contest held at Baylor Belton College at Belton.

AN APPRECIATION

The Editor wishes to take this method of thanking everyone who has helped in any way to make this book a success. Especially does she wish to thank all members of the staff; the faculty advisor, Mrs. Clift and Adriel Robinson, who have worked so faithfully to put out a bigger and better Buckaroo.

"The Dynamo" is becoming stronger with age. The support of the business men and the student-body take care of it in a financial way; and the staff has done unusually good work this year because of the impetus received from the "Texas High School Press Association" and the Interscholastic League "High School Press Association."

The Glee Club was organized by the selective draft system in October with Mrs. Marshall as director and Mrs. McCluney as pianist. The club has appeared in public many times. The musical comedy, "Miss Curathers Returns," was given for the benefit of sending the club to the Interscholastic meet at Belton

THE BUCKAROO JAZZAROOS

Piano, Gladys Kirk; drums, Happy McGuire; Saxaphone, Ray Pitts; Clarinet and saxaphone, William Collier

This orchestra was organized at the beginning of the school year for the purpose of putting pep and music in the High School. The members have played together all year, and have made a hit with all who have heard them

The orchestra has rendered splendid services by playing for chapel exercises, pep meetings, and many civic events. It has been a very important factor in making many programs successful, and an orchestra which any high school should appreciate

Gladys, Ray and Happy will not be here next year. William, however, will be in charge of the orchestra, which will equal the one this year

The Latin Club opened its activities in the Fall of 1924, with a football game against the Spanish Club. Other outstanding events were the initiation, a party making and solving cross-word puzzles.

The Spring term was taken up with the work of the Latin tournament and writing a Latin play.

Motto: Todos por uno y uno por todos

Colors: Rose and gray

Although this is the first year that the Spanish Club has been organized, it has a very large membership. During the year the club enjoyed many interesting programs, from which the club learned of the music, history, art, life and customs of Spain.

PRESS CLUB

The members of the Buckaroo and Dynamo staffs organized a Press Club to promote interest in literary activities in neighboring schools as well as our own equal to that in athletics. Another interest of the club was to furnish recreation for the members.

The officers elected were

Under the able leadership of their teacher, Mrs. W. T. Jones, this piano class, composed of twenty talented and attractive young ladies, has enjoyed a very successful year. Several public recitals given during the term presented proof of their advancement and skill. The above picture was taken at the Mid-term recital. The Sacred Concert, the first thing of its kind to be presented in the city, gave further evidence of the fact that they had worked diligently, and that they had received excellent instruction. This piano class is one of the most promising and most popular in the Fine Arts Department.

MRS. KIKER'S FINE ARTS CLASS

The pupils from left to right are

BENSON KINGSTON, KATHERINE SWANSON, JEANETTE BLACK, ILENE LEITER
ANNIE DYLE, JULIA CUNY, HELEN WEAVER, VIRGINIA LEE, HOPE OSTERMAN
ANNA SCHWIND, ALENE CARTER, KELLY MONZELLO, BURNS KINGSTON

Mrs. Kiker and her class have added much to the standard of the Fine Arts Department. They have had a very interesting and instructive course, and altogether this is one of the successful sections of the department. This year has been a busy one for these pupils as they have put on several recitals.

MRS. FERGUSON'S FINE ARTS CLASS

ELECTRA TOUCHSTONE, NORMAN SWANSON, FRED A ARLOSOROFF, HELEN RUSSELL, SOPHIE FAVERMAN, ANNABELLE THOMPSON, MADGE BEARD, ILENI COLLINS, GENEVIE YEATER, THELMA HERRINGTON, OLLIE VAN STANFORD DORA ARLOSOROFF, WILBUR BEARD, GLADYS KIRK, RUBY PORTER, BERTHA BLACKMAN, TOMMIE HEWELL HEPNER

Mrs. Ferguson has been one of the most faithful teachers in the Fine Arts Department, having been in Breckenridge High School for six years. This is another one of the successful classes to put on a excellent program during the year. These pupils also gave a very interesting program in assembly

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class presented its first play, "Mary's Millions," for the purpose of getting money to win the beauty contest

JUNIOR PLAY

Two one act plays "Romancers" and "The Flower Shop" were presented by the Junior class. The proceeds went to the funds for the Junior Senior banquet

DRAMATIC PLAY

The first play of the year, "A Box of Monkeys," was given by the Dramatic Club. The proceeds went to the Buckaroo annual funds.

GLEE CLUB OPERETTA

The Glee Club's presentation of the operetta, "Miss Caruthers Returns," made it possible for the club to attend the music meet at Waco.

CAPTAIN GIVEN GOLD FOOTBALL

Jake Schulman, captain of 1924 football team, was presented a gold football at assembly period, January 6, by John Vail, business manager and a representative of the team. The trophy was given by the team as a token of appreciation of the captain's leadership throughout the football season.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

On the night of December 12, the High School cafeteria presented a pleasing sight. A football banquet honoring the Buckaroos and their lady friends was given. The color scheme of green and white was carried out, with an added sprig of "mistletoe" occasionally. The evening's entertainment started with several numbers played by the Palace Orchestra, after which a three-course turkey dinner was served. At each plate a tiny sombrero for the boys and a small lassie tied with green ribbons for the girls, was placed for favors.

After dinner was served, "Pop" Frazier, accompanied by Mrs. Vernon Marshall, gave a trombone solo. Immediately following was the election of captain for the year '25. Wyndell Cox was almost unanimously elected. Interesting talks were made by Jake Schulman, captain of 1924; John F. Bailey, Judge Hickman, L. T. Cook, Jack Robert and H. A. Leaverton. Dr. V. O. Marshall sang a solo which was greatly appreciated.

Then the watches were presented. Harbin Harrison, the most valuable man on the team; Lowell Cook, the best all-round man, and the non-letter men, Herbert Shahan and Roy Filler, were the elated recipients.

FOOTBALL PARTY

On Friday evening, October 25, Misses Pauline Proper, Margaret Cox, Dixie McCallie, Lucille Wood and Kathleen Haynes elaborately entertained with a party, given to the football boys of Breck Hi and Cisco Hi and their friends, at the City Club, on North Ross Avenue.

The club house was decorated with Breck Hi and Cisco Hi colors, which were arranged artistically.

Dancing featured the entertainment of the evening. Music was furnished by the High School Orchestra.

At the close of the evening a dainty plate lunch, consisting of sandwiches, olives, potato chips and punch, was served.

PRESS CLUB PARTY

One of the most enjoyable events of the holidays was a party given by the Press Club at the home of Dick Smith, New Year's Eve night.

The press idea was carried out through the entire evening. Newspaper napkins were used, and games dramatizing ads, making press words out of a number of given letters, and matching headlines were played. One of the most enjoyable parts of the evening was when the guests made Buckaroos of chewing gum.

The dainty refreshment consisted of candle salad and tea, carrying out the holiday idea.

The party was brought to a fitting climax by giving a midnight serenade to Mr. Cook and the down town business section.

SENIOR PICNIC

A very delightful picnic was held by the members of the Senior class at Lake View, Wednesday afternoon, January 28, from 3:15 to 5:30. Picture making for the annual was the main diversion.

At five o'clock a bonfire was built and bacon and marshmallows toasted. Sandwiches, potato chips, fruit, pickles, pies and cakes were also served.

BUCKAROO QUEEN OF BEAUTY CROWNED

The crowning of the 1925 Buckaroo Queen of Beauty, Miss Ruth Stout, was one of the most beautiful scenes ever presented in the High School Auditorium.

The stage was artistically decorated with ferns and smilax.

As the curtain rose, a beautiful scene was presented. Miss Louise Sarver, the beauty of '24, was seated upon the throne, becomingly gowned in powder blue and wearing the crown. Jimmie Payne, business manager; Irlan McArron, most popular boy, and Arch Kinchen, best all-round boy, of the '25 Buckaroo, were her attendants. Harold and Billy Blodgett were heralds.

To the strains of soft music, little Janie Leaverton and Courtney Ann Hamlin strewed flowers in the path of the 1925 queen of beauty, Miss Ruth Stout, who followed directly behind them. She was arrayed in white crepe, with a flowing train, which was carried by little Verna Mae Hardy and Helen Leaverton. The queen-to-be carried a large bouquet of white carnations.

Immediately following was Bessie Zinn, most popular girl of the 1925 Buckaroo, as maid of honor.

Then came Fern Campbell, Junior beauty, and Pauline Proper, the Sophomore beauty, followed directly by Thelma and Elma Middleton, the Freshman beauties. When all had taken their places on the stage, the queen of '24 presented her crown and sceptre to Jimmie Payne, and stepping off the throne, took her place at one side.

With an appropriate speech, Jimmie Payne accepted the crown and sceptre. Miss Ruth Stout knelt down and the crown was placed upon her head, and the 1925 pledge was given to her.

SENIOR THEATRE PARTY

February 14, the Seniors had a theatre party at the National Theatre. Besides the picture, chewing gum was greatly enjoyed. The organist favored the class by playing the "Chewing Gum Blues." Through the courtesy of Tom Caraway, manager, the members of the party were given matinee prices. After the show the class went to the Pythian Hall and enjoyed a delightful lunch of tuna fish and pimento cheese sandwiches, cakes and hot chocolate.

FIRST DANCE

Henry Nanney entertained the members of the Junior and Senior classes Friday evening, February 6, with a dance at the Elks Hall. This was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year and plans were made at once for more such entertainment. Harrison's orchestra furnished the music.

JUNIORS GO KODAKING

Friday, February 13, the Juniors spent an enjoyable evening kodaking. Miss Cope, with her faithful dog, chaperoned. Pictures were made of dignified members and undignified; which is which may be determined by the snapshot pages.

SOPHOMORES HAVE SNAPSHOT DAY

Tuesday, February 17, the Sophomores, chaperoned by Miss McNeal and Mrs. Key, hiked out in the country a couple of miles to take pictures for their snapshot page. After spending quite awhile "working the kodaks," they spread lunch, which was greatly enjoyed.

FRESHMEN TAKE PICTURES

The Freshmen spent an evening of real pleasure Friday, February 20th, when girls dressed as boys and boys dressed as girls "to have their picture took" for the year book. This is the first time this class had an outing together. The visitors from the upper classmen helped make the evening more enjoyable—at least, for some.

Freshmen

Freshmen Happenings

Look you back, Dear Reader, through your trouble-laden years, to that glorious semester of '25. Say, weren't those the days! That was the year we Freshmen spread our little speck of rebellion over the Senior track down and fight for the Beauty Contest? Arch didn't know whether to rob a bank or start a brokerage shop. Nevertheless they put it over us, but it sure did us Freshmen a heap of good to see them hustling around for fear they'd already lost it.

Perhaps you remember a football game that occurred about the end of the season, after the assiduity of support from town had worn away and people had other things than ball games on their chests. And maybe you wonder why the new stadium was so crowded in spite of this handicap. Well here's the secret: We Freshmen sold tickets to the game. When Mr. Cook and Mr. Bailey saw that we were full to the bursting point with pep and zeal they gave us an outlet in the way of ticket sales with twelve and a half per cent commission—some-where about twelve and a half per cent—I never was a glutton for mathematics, noway. And of course, Freshmen-like we "cleaned up." When we crowded the streets with ticket sellers, Breckenridge turned out to that ball game just as if it were Yale and Harvard.

We Freshmen always were champions for novelty, so we started a new Windsor Tie Club. The whole class got back of the scheme and put it over big, as usual.

Then those Basket Ball Games! We were so elated over our success in defeating the Sophomores and Juniors that we forgot the Seniors. They beat defeat us by such a great margin, either, considering that they have nearly all the Senior Boys Basket Ball Team in that class.

When we got over the awful mid-term exams, we put on a chapel programme, and everyone except those in the other classes said that it was the best ever. We couldn't help it though, because we have natural ability for everything that's any good. That afternoon when we went snapshotting we had quite a few additions, chiefly of the higher classes; but we really didn't blame them for wanting to go with us.

Florence, after seeing her grandmother measure cloth from her nose to her hand, brought to her a piece of cloth and said: "Grandma, smell this and see how long it is."

Gladys: "Where did you get that awful cold?"

Arch: "I think I got it by going to bed barefooted."

Mr. Johnson: "What is the next element you are going to analyze?"

Mary F. Russell: "I don't know; it's right on the end of my tongue."

Mr. Johnson: "Well, don't swallow it; it's arsenic."

Mr. Stone: "Open your books, look at your maps, and we shall watch France expand."

Mr. Downing: "Jack, where is my morning paper?"

Jack: "Oh, dad, that must be what I wrapped some fudge in for Bob last night."

Speedy: "Tell me how to write a snapshot."

Helen Speer: "What do you think of the modern jellybean?"

Irene S.: "You give me your opinion first."

Helen: "Well, to tell the truth, I think they are just awful —"

Irene S.: "I don't like them either. They are just as sweet as sugar."

Coach: "Now, Saturday, when you catch the ball, take two steps to the right and back; then run for a touch down."

Jake: "But what if I stumble and fall?"

Coach: "Well, you will have to stop there."

Miss Woltenberger: "The women of Spain are not allowed to carry on business. The men have to do that."

John Vail: "If they don't have a man, they have to do without."

Mr. Bailey: "I don't know why it is that one pupil won't tell on the other one for cheating."

Phil: "Why, it's co-operation, of course."

Mr. Johnson (meaning physical states): "In what states do we find water?"

Iva Mae Hill: "Why, we find water in every state."

Fortune Teller: "If you will tell me your name, I'll tell you the name of your future wife."

"My name is Willie Schoolcraft."

"The name of your future wife will be Mrs. Willie Schoolcraft."

Miss Underwood: "Do you like Kipling?"

Ophelia: "I don't know. How do you kipple?"

Then Finally —

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. She is, of course, feminine. If she is singular, you become nominative. You walk across the street. If she is plural, you become imperative. Her brother is accusative, and you become imperative. Her brother is an indefinite article. You walk in and sit down. You talk of the future, and she changes to the objective. Her father becomes present and you become the past participle.

Sarah: "You haven't taken Bessie's measurement yet."

Irlan: "What for?"

Sarah: "Sentor ring."

Irlan: "Aw, I'm taking measurements for Band trousers."

Homer Tudor (speaking of Abraham Lincoln): "How do you like A Lincoln?"

Jimmie Fowler: "Not so well; I prefer a Buick."

Miss Wolfenberger: "Why, Clyde, you don't even know how you made 60 on algebra?"

Clyde: "I didn't; Willie told you "

Mr. Johnson: "What is an icicle?"

Jake: "A stiff piece of water."

Mrs. Clift (explaining outline on board): "Now watch the board and we will go right through it."

Football games always remind us of necking parties. The main difference is in the height at which the tackles are made.

You plant a radish seed and raise a radish,
But 'twould be absurd —
To plant a birdseed and expect a bird to grow.

She took my hand in sheltered nooks,
She took my candy and my books,
She took my lustrous wrap of fur,
She took those gloves I bought for her,
She took my words of love and care,
She took my flowers, rich and rare,
She took my time for quite awhile,
She took, I must confess, my eye,
She took my kisses, maid so shy,
She took whatever I would buy
And then she took another guy.

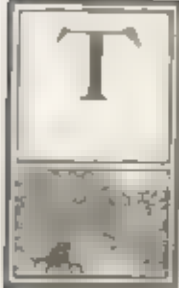

A Maiden (in distress): "Save me—oh, save me!"

Excited Freshman: "'Tis as deep as th' divil there—could you just swim over a little to the one side?"

ESTABLISHED 1904

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of BRECKENRIDGE

IT WAS established in 1904 and has served the people of Breckenridge continuously since that time, now more than 20 years in a very satisfactory way.

It is the largest bank between Fort Worth and El Paso, and because of this and the strong condition in which it is kept at all times, it is often referred to as the "Financial Gibraltar" of West Texas. It has a Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits of more than $485,000 and Deposits of over $445,000, representing the accounts of 3,750 happy, prosperous and satisfied individuals, firms and corporations.

It is very proud of its rapid and sound growth, very grateful for its many depositors, and will welcome and appreciate your bank account too.

Many young people go far enough college each year on funds they have saved by depositing a small amount in the bank each month.
